(b) Location; supervision; employees; rules and regulations. The bureau shall be located at the village offices and shall be under the supervision and control of the village treasurer. The village treasurer, subject to the approval of the village council, shall adopt rules and regulations for the operation of the bureau and appoint any necessary qualified village employees to administer the bureau.

The fact that a fine has been scheduled for a particular violation shall not entitle any person to dispose of the violation at the bureau. Nothing in this chapter shall prevent or restrict the village from issuing a municipal civil infraction citation for any violation or from prosecuting any violation in a court of competent jurisdiction. Likewise, no person shall be required to dispose of a municipal civil infraction violation at the bureau, as they may have the violation proceed before a court of appropriate jurisdiction. (f) Appearance; payment of fines and costs. An alleged violator receiving a municipal civil infraction violation notice shall appear at the bureau and pay the specified fines and costs at or by the time specified for appearance in the municipal civil infraction violation notice. An appearance may be made by mail, in person, or by representation.

(g) Procedure where admission of responsibility not made or fine not paid. If an authorized village official issues and serves a municipal ordinance violation notice, and if an admission of responsibility is not made and the civil fine and cost, if any, prescribed by the schedule of fines for the violation are not paid at the bureau, a municipal civil infraction citation may be filed with the district court and a copy of the citation may be served by first class mail upon the alleged violator at the alleged violator's last known address. The citation filed with the court does not need to comply in all particulars with the requirement for citations as provided by section 8705 and 8709 of the act, but shall consist of a sworn complaint containing the allegations stated in the municipal ordinance

7. Separability. If any section, subsection, paragraph, sentence, clause, phrase or portion of this ordinance is, for any reason, held invalid or unconstitutional by any Court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed a separate, distinct and independent provision and such holding shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

8. Ordinances Repealed. All ordinances and/or parts of ordinances inconsistent with this ordinance are hereby repealed.

9. Effective Date. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force fifteen days from and after its enactment as provided by the Village council.
